

Keighley Town Council

Co-Option Policy & Procedure

APPENDICES

Appendix A – Co-option Application Form

Appendix B – Eligibility Form

The Co-option of a Town Councillor occurs when a casual vacancy has arisen on the Council and no poll (by-election) has been called.

To ensure that a fair and transparent process is undertaken the following procedure will be followed by Keighley Town Council.

1. On receipt of written confirmation from the Electoral Services Office at Bradford Metropolitan District Council that the casual vacancy can be filled by means of Co-option, the Town Clerk will:

- a) Advertise the vacancy for 4 weeks on the Council notice boards and website
- b) Inform the Council that the Co-option Policy has been initiated

2. Applicants for co-option will be asked to:

- a) Submit information about themselves, by way of completing a short application form, and submitting their Curriculum Vitae (a copy of the Application Form is attached as Appendix A);
- b) Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules, (a copy of the Eligibility Form is attached as Appendix B).

3. Copies of the applicant's Curriculum Vitae and application form will be circulated to all Councillors by the Clerk at least seven days prior to the meeting of the Full Council, when the next Co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and all Councillors as Strictly Private and Confidential.

4. If the number of applicants for a single vacancy exceeds 3, the applications will be heard informally at a specially convened informal meeting to allow candidates and members sufficient time to review the application and to facilitate time for questions and answers.

5. No resolution, voting or decisions will be made at this meeting. This is a special informal meeting to allow for an appropriate period of information sharing between members and applicants.

6. At the next available Full Council meeting, the press and public will be asked to leave the Council meeting, so that the applications can be considered.

7. There are no rules regarding co-option of members. The Council may choose who they like but the person must be qualified to have been a candidate.
8. After due consideration, the Chairman will reconvene the meeting and it will be reopened to the public and press and voting takes place. Voting will be according to the statutory requirements in that a successful candidate must have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting.
9. If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one of them at the first count receives a majority over the aggregate votes given to the rest, steps must be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes and the remainder must then be put to the vote again; this process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained. Therefore, if there are more candidates than vacancies, the candidate with the lowest number of votes will be excluded.
10. If any two candidates poll the same number of votes a separate vote to eliminate one of them will be held. Voting will continue with the lowest polling candidate being excluded until the number of candidates matches the number of vacancies.
11. Councillors shall vote by show of hands, or, if at least two members so request, by signed ballot. If any member so requires, the Clerk shall record the names of members who voted on any question to show whether they voted for, against, or abstained.
12. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
13. Only Councillors present at the Full Council Meeting may nominate, second or vote upon a person to fill the vacancy. At this meeting, Members will be informed of the names of anyone wishing to be considered as a Councillor.
14. If there is more than one vacancy, a Councillor may nominate one person per seat. Each Councillor will have only one vote per seat i.e. two vacancies will allow any Councillor to have two votes.
15. If no single candidate receives a majority on the first vote, then the person with the lowest number of votes will be eliminated and voting will take place on the remainder. This process will continue until one person receives an absolute majority.
16. The first candidate to receive an absolute majority of those present and voting will be duly elected.
17. After the vote has been concluded, this business is concluded once the Chairman declares that the successful candidate is duly elected. The successful candidate is then declared co-opted to the Council.
18. The Clerk will advise the Monitoring Officer of Bradford Metropolitan District Council of the names of anyone co-opted to the Council.
19. The Town Clerk is responsible for providing each new Councillor with an induction, a new councillors pack and should ensure that all new Councillors have read and understood the Code of Conduct and the Constitution adopted by the Council.
20. Before the successful candidate can participate in Council business s/he must sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office and deliver it to the Town Clerk.
21. The individual will be summonsed to attend the next Full Council Meeting where s/he will sign the Declaration.

22. All new Councillors must, within 28 days of their appointment to office, register their Interests with the District Council Monitoring Officer.

23. The Council is not obliged to provide feedback on the application process to unsuccessful candidates.

Is there any other information you would like to disclose regarding your application? (If necessary, please continue on a separate sheet of paper).
